Security Analyst [Online/Phone Recruitment]

Milan, Rome

Your challenges

As part of a team of cyber security experts, you'll use the latest technologies to help our customers prevent the most insidious cyber-attacks and enhance our advanced research. In detail:

- Defining cyber security strategies and procedures to protect infrastructure from hacker attacks.
- Approaching to cloud and infrastructure security protects from the inside out
- Protecting the web users' Digital Identity in compliance with corporate policies and regulations
- Protecting computer data and ensuring the security of the applications that access and manage it.
- Consolidating risk management governance and tools, employ automation and use context-sensitive controls to ensure efficiency and accountability.

Cyber security requires creative solutions and unconventional ideas which you can shape at Accenture. Alongside our experts, you'll respond to complex cyber-attacks and venture into the Dark Web to defend our customers.

Qualifications

Why we would choose you? If these goals reflect your ambitions, you have the chance to stand out and face new positive challenges. There are some requirements for you to be successful and make a significant contribution:
